NO PAPER TO-MORROW.

In order to give the employees of the GAZETTE opportunity to participate in Reno's Fourth of July celebration, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

SARCASM FOR THE BRITISH LION.

Representative Robinson of New York has made a good deal of fun by his furious tirades against England. To-day he referred to the constitutional provision which forbids any one taking Senators or Representatives to task for anything said in debate. He stated that in January Lionel Sackville West, the British Minister, had criticised the remarks made by Robinson, and expressed to Secretary Frelinghuysen his disapprobation of the resolution of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. He offered a resolution directing the Secretary of State to say whether the British Minister had suggested any punishment for such members as spoke without his permission; whether he had suggested that a British censor be appointed to revise speeches before they are delivered; whether he suggested some person to give soothing-syrup to the British Lion when disturbed by the American Eagle; and whether he wished the New York Tribune to be recognized as the British organ in the United States to the injustice of the Times, and whether the minister thought that because we saluted the British flag at Yorktown we had pulled down our own.

THE DENVER EXPOSITION.

Indicative of the great interest being taken by Eastern parties regarding the National Mining Exposition, which opens at Denver in August next, the following is taken from the Chicago Mining Review: "From all quarters reports continue to come in showing that the interest in the approaching Denver Exposition is widespread and general. Colorado will probably be able to make the most complete exhibition, but the collection from other States and Territories will be valuable and interesting. Will Nevada not take steps to be properly represented? It is high time that something should be done.

The Enterprise asks if Nevada is satisfied to take an insignificant position in the exposition. To do so would be to invite capital to stay away from Nevada instead of coming here to aid in the magnificent developments of which the State is capable. If public funds are not available for the purpose of sending suitable specimens there should certainly be sufficient private enterprise left in the State to secure that end. The GAZETTE will join with its contemporaries in contributions of space, proaching, and its proportion of subscriptions if any movement can be organized.

Nothing shows the growth of a great city more accurately than the condition of its banks. The thirty-eighth semi-annual statement of the Pacific Bank of San Francisco is issued, and not only shows the country to be in good condition, but that the bank itself is growing in strength and importance. It has resources amounting to $3,750,000, of which nearly half is coin and United States bonds. Its capital is $1,000,000 and its surplus nearly $500,000. Dr. McDonald may well take pride in his career as a banker, as this is the best statement the bank has ever made.

The project of connecting the Mississippi with the great lakes via the Illinois and Chicago rivers is constantly gaining ground. The latest proposition is for a much larger waterway than was at first suggested—nothing less than a first-class ship canal, with extensive wharfage room, etc.

The German navy has determined to employ carrier pigeons regularly in the coasting service, all the experiments made by the Prussian Government on the North Sea coast during the last six years having proved their value as a means of communication with lightships.

Sacramento Bee: If Stoneman and Rosecrans do not make a better team in political life than they did in military, they will lead the Democracy of California in a most masterly retreat in November.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

Senator Miller's Horse Trade. WASHINGTON, July 3. To-day a writer for the Sunday Herald, of Washington, tells the following story about Senator Miller of California: Miller bought a fine horse the other day for $1,200, and got stuck badly by one of the Washington horse-dealers. The first day he went driving the horse kicked the dashboard off the buggy and nearly killed Miller. He got to talking to me about the horse, and I told him if he would give me five dollars a day for ten days I would go to a horse-trainer and have him properly trained. Miller agreed, so I took the horse to the racetrack, where my old friend Joe McKibbler has charge of things. I saw an old darkey with a big track-roller, and asked him what he would give me for the use of the horse. He said four dollars a day; so I hooked the horse up in the big shafts and let him go. I was out there the other day, and the old darkey had to whip him to make him go along. I'll bet he'll be gentle enough when Miller gets him back. In this way I get five dollars and a half a day for having the horse trained.

The Cunning Chinese.

WASHINGTON, July 3. The Cabinet secretly considered the propriety of the request made by the Chinese minister to allow of the passage through this country, en route to China, of 60,000 coolies from Cuba. It was affirmed that great hardship and expense would accrue to them if they were not allowed to take this route. The executive positively denied the request. With the usual ignorance of facts and diplomatic falsehood the astute celestial here continue to descend lustily on the wrong done coolie men and brothers. It was said that the Chinese Cuban laborers would have to return home by way of England. Every one of them went to Cuba by ship from Hongkong to Panama; crossed the Isthmus and thence by vessel across the Caribbean Sea to Cuba. Why, then, could they not return this way? This shows in what manner and how shrewdly the Chinese are endeavoring to circumvent the law. If Cuba coolies should be allowed to pass through, by far the larger proportion of them would remain here.

Crocker vs. Colton.

NEW YORK, July 3. The Tribune has a long interview with Crocker, who tells the story of the suit brought by Mrs. Colton. It closes as follows: "Settlement was made by her husband's warm personal friend, Wilson, and by Tevis, one of the sharpest business men in California, thoroughly devoted to her service. I never saw her from the time that the embezzlement was discovered, and never threatened her by word of mouth or letter, or through her personal friends. When the settlement was made we considered that we were presenting her with $300,000, for our claim against her husband's estate, if it had been enforced, would have swamped it. G. F. Smith, attorney for Mrs. Colton, has been filling the San Francisco papers with attacks upon me. I am glad of an opportunity to place the true facts of the case before the public."

Mrs. Pacheco Seriously Ill.

WASHINGTON, July 3. It will be discouraging to many friends of Mrs. Pacheco to learn that her severe illness still continues without any great change toward recovery. Her physician is anxious to have her removed from here as soon as she can stand the journey north, as hot weather has greatly retarded her return to strength. Governor Pacheco and Miss Pacheco have been close attendants in the sick-room night and day for a fortnight.

Fond of Fun.

WASHINGTON, July 3. Last Monday Cassidy of Nevada introduced a bill authorizing the Legislature of California and Nevada to provide for the annexation to Nevada of three counties in California. In a spirit of jocular reprisal Berry of California introduced a bill to-day authorizing the Legislatures of California and Nevada to make provisions for the annexation of the State of Nevada to California and abolish the name and government of the former State.

A Bill to Abolish Nevada.

WASHINGTON, July 3. A House bill was introduced by Berry to abolish the State of Nevada and attach it to California.

Waste of Time.

WASHINGTON, July 3. The opinion is quite general among lawyers that none of the star route cases will be given to the jury, but will be thrown out of court by Judge Wylie.

A Colorado Cloud-Burst.

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 3. A fatal and destructive water spout visited this vicinity Saturday evening. The centre of the storm was Manitou Springs. The water came down the mountains forming a wall eight feet high. One body washed down and was swept past the hotel. A bus filled with passengers which had started for the train was swept from the street, horses, driver, bus and contents washed down the torrent and was dashed high and dry on the rocks. All escaped with but slight injuries. Hail stones measuring 13 inches fell. Loss placed at from $75,000 to $100,000.

More Murderers.

ERIE, Pa., July 3. A strange crank passed through here Saturday, who professed to have command of God to avenge Giteau's murder, as he termed it. He resembles Giteau and professes to be a distant relative. He refused to tell his name or where he came from, but he had a ticket from Chicago to New York. He uttered terrible threats against Arthur and others.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, July 3. The general opinion of the best informed members is that Congress will adjourn sine die on the 17th inst. The cornerstone of the Garfield Memorial Church was laid this afternoon on Vermont avenue, the site of the Christian church which the late President and family attended.

New England Fighters.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 3. Billy Welch and Dave Phaton fought a prize fight at the Plains, a suburb to this city. Forty-three rounds. Phaton won on a foul. Both badly punished.

Columbia the Winner.

NEW YORK, July 3. The eight oared race, distance two miles, between Yale and Columbia colleges yesterday was won with ease by the latter in 10 minutes, 56 seconds. Harvard's time 11 minutes, 10 seconds.

Eads in Luck.

CHICAGO, July 3. Letters from Mexico say the government has accepted Captain Eads' plan for the improvement and enlargement of the harbor of Vera Cruz at an estimated cost of $7,500,000.

All Fixed for a Fight.

WOLWICH, July 3. The British military preparations in view of possible contingencies in Egypt are now virtually complete.

Another Big Ohio Man Gone.

FOREIGN.

An Irish Disturbance.

DUBLIN, July 3. There were disturbances yesterday at Listowel, county Kerry. A Mrs. Moore was addressing a crowd when the police dispersed the meeting. She subsequently addressed the mob at the railway station. The police again appearing, they were attacked with stones, whereupon the riot act was read and the police proceeded to disperse the mob, firing their revolvers. Several persons were wounded.

WESTERN.

Hard on Horse Thieves.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3. A Linkville, Or., dispatch says: Constable Beake with two men last Tuesday overtook two horse thieves they had been tracking. A fight ensued, and one thief was killed and the other mortally wounded.

A Policeman Suicides.

MARYSVILLE, July 3. Porter P. Polly, a policeman in Chinatown, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the head. Domestic trouble is supposed to be the cause.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

—The freight-handlers' strike still continues.

—Recruits for the Egyptian army are being impressed.

—The Harvard-Columbia race is declared off to-morrow.

—The Coalville (Pa.) cyclone kills 1 nearly 30 people and wrecked about 15 houses.

—On Saturday 923 Mormons arrived in New York, the largest contingent since 1863.

—The first through passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy route left Denver last night.

—The Meyersdale (Md.) coal miners struck on Saturday for an advance of from 50 to 60 cents per ton.

—In a race from Baltimore, 188 miles, between the yachts Rona and Eliza, the latter won by one minute.

—Spontaneous combustion burned the $275,000 building and contents of Thomas & Sons last Saturday night in Philadelphia.

—The police appointed by the late Democratic authorities at Petersburg, Va., refuse to surrender the station-house to the new Readjuster appointees, and there is a dead-lock in municipal affairs.

—Marshal John Bryant of Columbus, Ky., was shot by Kilgore, the murderer of Gardner, who was concealed in a house near Belmont, Mo. The posse surrounded the house on Saturday and Kilgore rushed out. He shot Bryant and escaped. The wound is not necessarily fatal.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Food and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Malnourished Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING BOTTLES, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their trouble. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system. It is a genuine food of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither piles upon the appetite nor offends the system.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weakness of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion and restores to the female form, and robustness, and revivifies the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who are inclined to Consumption, will find this preparation especially suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of the food, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Food of Milk, agreeable to the taste and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and its action is rapid and wholesome and nourishing. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved portrait of Baroness Liebig, and a signature of the proprietor, as well as that of A. VOIGEL & CO., Baltimore, Md., Sole Agents for America.

PERSONALS.

A. W. Maxwell, of the Antelope mine, is in town.

Charles J. Currier, of Winnemucca, is at the Arcade.

L. W. Pierce, formerly train dispatcher at Ogden, died on Thursday at St. Helena.

Jack Lynch, a Comstock printer, with his family, went below last night, to remain.

Miss Patton left on the morning train for Chicago, to visit her sister, Mrs. Harry Hunter, who is very ill.

Captain A. D. Griffen, of the Antelope mine, returned from the Eastern States last evening, and is at the Golden Eagle.

W. S. Hobart and family are in town to-day. They will visit points of interest about here, including Steamboat and Tahoe.

Ex-Governor Stanford went West last night in a special car attached to the overland express. Mrs. Stanford came East to meet him.

B. J. Burns, who has been visiting Reno with a view of settling here, goes to San Francisco to-night. Mr. Burns stands high in journalistic circles.

Miss Rebecca Prescott took her departure for Carson and Virginia City this morning, where she will spend the remaining weeks of her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Laycock have returned from below and will now settle down to house-keeping and become a favorite family of Reno. May the Lord abundantly bless them.

R. P. M. Greeley came down from Clifton yesterday, returning last evening. He reports lively times at the Pacific Mills, and says they are putting out 30,000 feet of lumber per day.

Dr. A. S. Richardson of Mason Valley has engaged rooms at the Golden Eagle Hotel for himself and family—to arrive this evening—so as to enjoy a full day in Reno on the glorious Fourth.

Old Mr. Masten, one of Washoe county's oldest settlers, recently died at his ranch up the river, at the advanced age of 74 years. No mention has been made of his death in any of the Reno papers.

Mrs. P. W. Stevens, a spiritual medium of Sacramento, who owns property on Fourth and Chestnut streets in Reno, has been spending a few days here, and will start on the 5th for Utah and Colorado.

D. O. Mills and wife with White-law Reid and wife, will arrive in Reno on Wednesday. Mrs. Reid is the daughter of Mr. Mills. It is said that ex-Senator Sharon will meet them here and that the party will visit the Comstock.

"Mother Prime," the mother of the late E. M. Prime of Taylorville, died a few days ago at the advanced age of 84 years. Her husband, "Grandpa Prime," of about the same age, still survives, and is far more active than many men at the age of 40 years.

Attendants Caged.

Two of the women attendants at the Asylum stepped into a cell occupied by a crazy woman yesterday, when she darted out and quickly locked them in, and then said to them: "How do you like to be confined in there?" At that time another patient walking in the hall expostulated with the crazy doorkeeper, demanding that she let them out, which the woman refused to do. Then a fierce fight took place between the patients, each snatching the other nearly bald-headed, when other attendants arrived and put a quietus to further proceedings, and let the caged attendants out of their prison.

"Whisky Bob" Returned—Another Instance of Misplaced Sympathy.

This morning Frank Fellows, Deputy Sheriff of Humboldt county, arrived here with the notorious Indian thief, "Whisky Bob," and took him to the Carson prison, where he will serve a term of three years for house-breaking. It is but a short time since this predatory redskin was released from the Penitentiary by the Board of Pardons, where he had been sent up for horse-stealing. It is to be hoped that he will be permitted to complete his term this trip.

Personal.

E. K. Downer, one of the proprietors of the Mountain Messenger, accompanied by Miss Carrie L. Bosh (niece of F. Bosh of Reno), Miss Thirza A. Burman and Miss Mamie R. Farley of Downville, spent Sunday in Reno visiting friends, and left last night for Tahoe, where they will pass the Fourth. They intend visiting Donner Lake en route home to Sierra.

Photography.

Cook & Butler have purchased Denham's photograph gallery and will do everything in their line of art at reasonable rates. They will also produce life-size portraits in crayon or color, and retouch pictures.

A TOUGH DARKEY.

A New Hampshire Negro who Has Been Thirty Years on a Locomotive.

A gaudily decorated negro perched on the front of engine 113 attracted much attention this morning. J. H. Hall, the engineer, gave a GAZETTE reporter a brief sketch of the darkey's life, which has been a most eventful one. He ran on an engine out of Manchester, N. H., more than thirty years ago. Coming round the Horn in early days, he killed time in various ways until the Central Pacific was built, when he again went on the road. After some years' service he disappeared and was lost sight of for two years, when A. J. Stevens, Master Mechanic at Sacramento, ran across him in San Francisco. Stevens was familiar with him many years before, in Manchester, and was so glad to meet the nigger again that he rigged him out in a fine new suit and sent him to Mr. Hall, with whom he will remain. He is a quaint old darkey of the typical plantation style, and has probably rode farther on a locomotive than any other man. He has survived many accidents and collisions, and suffered only a broken arm. Once on the C. P. he fell down an embankment more than 200 feet, and was followed by a caboose car, which struck him fair on the head without inflicting the slightest injury, but the car was a total wreck. He laid under water for some weeks, and, strange to say, when he was fished out he appeared none the worse for the experience. He has been scalded, run over repeatedly, and blown up by a boiler explosion, but is still as bright as ever, and will remain with Mr. Hall on 113 as long as he runs her. It may be well to remark that this colored individual is a cast-iron one, weighing about 140 pounds, and has adorned the front of various locomotives for the past 40 years. When Stevens found him in San Francisco he was lying in a junk-shop, and would have been in the melting-pot soon. He was purchased for $30, repainted and presented to Mr. Hall.

Thunder and Lightning, Rain and Fine Weather.

There was heavy thunder with unusually frequent and vivid lightning all around the valley both Saturday and Sunday evenings. On Saturday evening rain fell in torrents, and many thought that the frowning black clouds would turn loose a damaging flood of water in this vicinity. Last evening there was a fierce squall from the south that made loose things rattle for a few minutes. A heavy coach was moved a hundred yards on Center street by the gust and nearly turned over. It lasted but a moment, however. The rain served to lay the dust and cool the heated air to a delightful temperature that tempted all of Reno's population to take an evening walk, and until 10 o'clock the streets were crowded. It is seldom such a crowd is seen at the depot as thronged there last night.

"Playing" the Old Man.

A well known citizen made his appearance on the street this morning with his face gutted and furrowed as if he had had a war-dance with a sausage machine. A GAZETTE reporter inquired the cause of the facial disorder. His reply was: "You see, my wife has done her hair up in curl-papers, so to look pretty at the ball on the Fourth, and the darn pins have harrowed all the hide off the side of my face and neck. To-morrow it'll be a solid scab, and I'll look like a scare-crow so that I can't go to the dance. And that's just what the old woman wants. She'll have a good time with the young fellows, and I'll have to stay at home and nurse my cheek."

Struck by Lightning.

On Saturday afternoon a streak of lightning invaded the premises of H. W. Roberts, who lives two miles east of Verdi. Its first freak was to kill two valuable horses. Then it stunned a little girl and twisted a leg out of the hands of a woman in the yard, after which it entered the kitchen and wrecked the pots, and kettles on the stove. Having expended itself, it disappeared in the cellar. The little girl was insensible for a while, but came out all right. Mr. Roberts is now strongly opposed to electricity in any form.

The Golden Opportunity.

Every sufferer from liver complaints and constipation will doubtless avail himself of the golden opportunity presented of testing the new remedy, Syrup of Figs, free of charge. Cases of long standing, which have only been aggravated by the harsh, gripping medicines formerly used, yield promptly to the gentle yet thorough influence of Syrup of Figs. Those who have tried it praise it highly. Trial bottles free and large bottles for sale by R. E. Queen, Reno, Nevada.

Fourth of July.

All who would keep cool and enjoy themselves to-morrow, should drink soda water with ice cream in it, to be had only at Queen's soda fountain. It is a most delightfully refreshing drink.

Wanted to Go East.

On Sunday a Chinaman broke away from his keepers at the Asylum and ran like a deer. It is thought he wanted to go East to see a cousin who lives in New York City.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Reno Prepared to Entertain Her Visitors in Good Style.

The programme for to-morrow, as marked out by the committee of arrangements, will be as follows: Forming of the procession on Second street at 10 o'clock sharp, and the committee request that all school children who are going to turn out be at the new schoolhouse at 9 o'clock, where they will find Mr. Bristow, who will give them the necessary instructions. It is expected they will be ready to report to Grand Marshal Walker not later than 10 A. M. The young ladies who are going in the Car of State and the young gentlemen who intend to represent the Territories are to meet at the old school house at 9 o'clock. Mr. Comstock will be there on time and will expect all to be prompt. After the procession the exercises at the theater will take place.

Joe has arranged for a special train to leave here for the Fair grounds immediately after the procession, so all who wish can enjoy themselves at the track. The programme a attractive and will be faithfully carried out.

The Reno Grand ball in the evening will be a grand affair. Do not miss the ball, if you do you will regret it. Arrangements have been made allowing all who remain over to the ball to return home the next day on their excursion tickets without additional expense.

Who Will Appear in the Procession To-morrow.

Following is a corrected list of young gentlemen representing the Territories on the Fourth of July: Frank Comstock, District of Columbia; Seymour Williams, Dakota; Frank Barnes, Idaho; Henry Cutting, Washington; Allie Clark, Wyoming; Willie Chapman, Utah; Naught Leete, New Mexico; Bonnie Lee, Montana; Dell Dickey, Arizona; Ralph Hussy, Alaska; Louis Sessions, Indiana.

The young ladies representing the different States in the Car of State and the young gentlemen representing the Territories on horseback, will meet at the old schoolhouse near the river at 9 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth. The children of the public school, intending to march in the procession, will meet at the new schoolhouse at 9 1/2 o'clock sharp.

Mrs. Stanford's New Car.

The Central Pacific Railroad architects have for some time been designing plans for a fine hotel car to be built for Mrs. Leland Stanford. Mrs. Stanford is now in Sacramento, to meet ex-Governor Stanford, who went through Reno last night in a special car. She has been consulted and made selections of panels to be used. It will be finished entirely according to her own taste and be an elegant and beautiful railway home. The work will be done at the car shops in Sacramento, under the supervision of Ben. Welch, and will be completed within two months. The cost will be from $20,000 to $30,000.

A Milling Company.

Another strenuous effort is to be made to bring out Pyramid mining district. J. H. Kinkead is organizing a milling company to be operated as a custom mill independent of all the mines. His plan is to lease the Jones & Kinkead mill, put in one of his new grinders, and go to work. He figures that ore can be worked for $12 a ton, and there is plenty on hand worth more than that outside of the copper ore. The company will have $3,000 capital stock. Kinkead and Pierce Evans will both go out and give it their personal attention.

A Truckee Mishap.

In the American Hotel Friday afternoon a number of men became engaged in a red hot discussion on politics, when one of the disputants strengthened his side of the question by knocking his opponent down. A free fight ensued, and in the melee E. C. Knowlton got his leg broken just above the ankle. He was taken to his room and Dr. Curless sent for, who rendered the necessary surgical aid.

Soda with Ice Cream.

The very perfection of summer drinks, refreshing, delicious and healthy, is the combination of pure soda water, true fruit syrup and ice-cream, on which R. E. Queen is having such a large run. If you want to have a good time on the Fourth, drink at Queen's fountain.

The Big Tree Store.

Attention is called to the advertisement of T. H. Cook & Co., Sacramento, who will forward goods to order to any address at prices so low as to make it an object for purchasers at a distance to trade with them. They will send their price list free to all, and charge nothing for shipping goods.

Deservedly Popular.

The delicious fruit syrups dispensed at Queen's soda fountain, have made his soda water a deservedly popular drink. Now that the weather is turning hot he is having an immense run on it.

Firemen's Attention.

Members of Washoe Engine Company, No. 2, will meet to-night at 7:30 o'clock sharp at engine house. A full attendance is requested. By order of Morris Ash, foreman.

WET GAMECOCKS.

How They Pitch Into Old Friends When Their Tails Hang Down.

Frank Perkins of the Palace has a number of gamecocks that have been raised together and get along peacefully enough in dry weather, but when it rains they start a "royal main" and keep it up until they wear themselves out. The rain wets their feathers and makes their tails hang down and so changes their appearance that they do not recognize each other. The proud rooster then looks around and sees another with his tail dragging in the mud, and he fails to recognize his old companion. He don't realize that his own tail is hanging down like a wet rag, and he feels indignant that a bird should be so careless with his toilet. "Aha!" he ejaculates, "I'll get the soup into that dunghill slouch," and he pitches in forthwith. And so they pair off and fight until they recognize each other and find out their mistake.

Marriage bells to-night.

Fresh candies at Allen's.

Flags and fireworks at Allen's.

Call at Bob Hoy's Capital Saloon.

E. Meyers supply of Fourth of July cigars is ample.

Wells-Fargo says Reno holds up better than any of the rest.

Ice cold soda water, pure and sparkling, at Queen's soda fountain.

For the Fourth, the circus and the month of July, read J. Barnett's new ad.

E. A. Allen has just received an assortment of fine stationery. Call and see it.

D. Howk's team left Lee's hay yard yesterday with 10,000 pounds of freight for Susanville.

Henry Rhue offers a house for sale very cheap and on easy terms. See 50 cent column.

The Coats Tavern is now complete in every respect and will compare well with any house in the State.

Flags, fire-crackers and bombs at Nash's.

Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—74, 80, 86, 86 and 80.

Mr. Higgins says the C. P. R. R. will not receive or deliver any freight to-morrow except such as is perishable.

Don't forget Chase & Thyes' to-morrow. Any kind of drink you call for, and the finest lunch will be served.

Last night's express train from the East was so long and heavy as to require two engines to pull it up the grade.

Butcher's hooks hung at about the height of a man's head are bad things to collide with in the night—about as bad as anvils.

Silk gros grain ribbon, in red, white and blue. One price—25 cents a yard. Flagg's, eight yards for $1, at J. Barnett's.

Kid gloves and hosiery, in the most beautiful shades, especially bought for the ball to-morrow night. (Fact.) Look at them. To be had only of J. Barnett.

W. R. Chamberlain received this morning a lot of double-header rock-ets, which he will fire from the roof of the hotel on the evening of the Fourth.

The chorus which sings in the exercises to-morrow will meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp at the Nevada Theater. Every person is expected to be on hand.

There is a bar-tender (wine-stewards they are called now) in Reno who has been lading out whisky for years and yet never drank a drop of it nor smoked a cigar.

A large number of Chinese have gone east during the past week. If they will keep up the rate of departure, there will not be a Chinaman on the coast in two years.

R. E. Queen has a full line of true fruit-syrups in readiness for the Fourth and has added ice cream to the other attractions at his soda fountain. Give us another glass—nyum-nyum.

The Wine House has celebration material to any extent. There is no place where better materials for a regular old-fashioned Fourth of July can be had than there. Call around.

A stranger remarked: "Reno is a funny town. When they see a man going along the street looking tired and hungry, all the restaurant men rush out with their bells and gongs to steer him for a feed."

Two drunken Indians had a fight at the Carson depot last evening and created considerable diversion in that quiet village. It was at first reported that rival editors were having a social time all to themselves.

The great attraction in our shoe department is the fact that we keep a larger variety of ladies' fine shoes than is usually found in shoe stores. Our prices speak for themselves. Hale Bros. & Co., Sacramento.
